

Vision of Nursing Administration department

The Nursing Administration Department - Faculty of Nursing, Benha University become a distinguished center for preparing leaders and managers in nursing field at the local and regional levels.

Head of Nursing Administration Department

Dr. Fawzia
Prof.dr.Fawzia farouk kamel

Dean of the faculty

Dr. Marwa Mostafa
Prof.dr. Marwa Mustafa Ragheb

Mission of Nursing Administration department

The Nursing Administration Department, Faculty of Nursing at Benha university is committed to prepare students with the ability to lead and manage in nursing field, as well as develop and enhance the capabilities of the department's faculty members in field of education, nursing, and scientific research in the specialty of nursing leadership and management, in collaboration with peers and health institutions to serve the community.

Head of Nursing Administration Department

Dr. Fawzia
Prof.dr. Fawzia farouk kamel

Dean of the faculty

Dr. Marwa Mustafa
Prof.dr. Marwa Mustafa Ragheb

04/3/2019

Goals of Nursing Administration department

Enhancing students' aims to lead and manage in nursing field through applying leadership and management principles by using the appropriate leadership style in various nursing leadership and management situations, using scientific problem-solving approach, and motivating others to achieve good performance, emphasizing the concept of total quality in work. Additionally, developing the capabilities of faculty members in the department in the fields of education, nursing, and scientific research by holding workshops and training programs, and assisting students in practicing leadership and management skills to improve the quality of care through communication to activate the relationship among the healthcare team.

Head of Nursing Administration Department

Prof. Dr. Fawzia Farouk Kamel

Dean of the faculty

Prof. Dr. Marwa Mustafa Ragheb

